Beliefs About Learning
We Believe:

- All students have the ability to maximize their potential.
- All students will be prepared for post-secondary education, including apprenticeships and immediate productive employment.
- Students will be provided with the opportunity to collaborate with business and industry to explore 21st century technology/workplace expectations.
- Students will experience an atmosphere of mutual respect, support, and cooperation among all members of the school community to build positive connections between staff and students.