

DANIELSON, CONNECTICUT

HARVARD H. ELLIS

TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL

Skilled labor has never been more in-demand, across many different industries — from technology to construction and manufacturing. And Connecticut's Technical Education and Career System (CTECS) is here to help our students be ready to jump into the workforce with all the future-ready skills, knowledge and confidence they need to succeed.

A CONNECTICUT TECHNICAL EDUCATION AND CAREER SYSTEM SCHOOL

CHOOSE FROM 12 CUTTING-EDGE CAREER TECHNOLOGIES:

- Architecture
- Automotive Collision, Repair and Refinishing
- Automotive Technology
- Carpentry
- Culinary Arts
- Electrical
- Hairdressing and Cosmetology
- Health Technology
- Masonry
- Plumbing and Heating
- Precision Machining Technology
- Robotics and Automation

CONTACT:

Sheila Bedard
Director of School Counseling and Admissions
Sheila.Bedard@cttech.org

Harvard H. Ellis Technical High School

613 Upper Maple Street,
Danielson, CT 06239

(860) 412-7500

ellis.cttech.org

New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC) accredited.

The Connecticut Technical Education and Career System is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer.

HARVARD H. ELLIS TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL
PART OF THE CONNECTICUT TECHNICAL EDUCATION AND CAREER SYSTEM

WORK HARD. LEARN MORE. EARN FAST.